

simply: vigilius.

Months without our dear guests lie ahead of us here at the vigilius. Months that we will well use to maintain our beloved house, to sand the wooden floors, to freshen up the clay plaster and to paint the walls. The vigilius will shine in new splendour when you next visit in 2023, and you can also look forward to one or two small innovations. But don't worry, the vigilius will of course remain true to itself!

Until then, we would like to enjoy the moment with you! For the last opening days of this year, we created a fine programme, which will lead to a closing party!

We look forward to seeing you there!

Your vigilius team
